Johnny's good looks and pleasing personality have made his high school career successful. May this success follow in his studies at Mass. State.

The Class of '54 gratefully acknowledges the assistance and counsel given by our teachers in helping us to produce a better yearbook.

Our thanks, also, to the following members of our typewriting staff whose help has lessened the arduous task of corrections:

Assembly and Radio Group

The Assembly and Radio Club took charge of school assemblies and conducted a radio program which was held on March 18.

1st row, l. to r.: F. Chaves, M. Guerrini, C. King, J. Shepardson, C. Annese, P. Santucci, P. Delfino, E. Cooper.

This club, under the supervision of Miss Jones, has been one of the most active organizations this year. The members entertained at several veteran hospitals, made favors, and contributed books, magazines and crossword puzzles. Scrap books were made for the children's hospital. The group also aided with the Red Cross Drive.

1st row: l. to r.: M. Prescott, T. Wilson, M. Stewart, S. Sabin, Pres.; R. Sarro, S. Folcik, U. Anderson.

2nd row: Robert Thomas, Wally Bartlett, Arthur Goodwin, John Todesco, John Kaleta, Joseph Viscardi, Wes Bartlett, David Knowles, Robert Cipriani.

The 1954 basketball season was not as good as it had been in the past. The team experienced more than their share of hard luck games. Sticking to tradition, the high school team met the alumni in the Town Hall and edged them out in a thriller, 69-67.

The Hornets started the regular season off with a bang as they downed a strong Sharon quintet, 48-46. In the next encounter, North Attleboro proved to be a faster more aggressive team as they beat the Mansfield Five, 57-47. Foxboro then dumped the Hornets 45-33 as the Green and White's attack never got started. The next two games were heart breakers as Mansfield lost to Randolph, 55-52 and North Easton, 54-53. Determined to end their 4 game losing streak, the Hornets unloaded all their fury on a tall Canton team and beat them by an impressive score of 52-33. Mansfield again fell into a slump and lost to Stoughton 40-35, North Attleboro 65-51, Foxboro 57-55, and Randolph, 63-48. Fighting to pull out of last place in the league standings, the Hornets downed a scrappy Oliver Ames team 51-45, and went on to defeat Canton 61-50, and Stoughton 46-40. These last 3 victories placed Mansfield in sixth spot with 5 wins and 9 losses. The Hornets were then eliminated by Whitman, 42-35 in the opening round of the Southeastern Massachusetts Basketball Tournament.

With the coming of the new high school and of course the new gym, the 1955 basketball team should provide ample competition in the Hockamock League. Taking all in consideration, credit must be given to Coach Waters for his fine job and to Coach Adams and his Jayvees for their impressible display of good sportsmanship.

Football

The Green Hornets had a fairly good season under the direction of Coach Waters as they rolled up 4 wins, 4 loses and 1 tie.

The Hornets lost their first game of the year to a powerful Somerset team in the final seconds of play by a 20-14 margin. Then the Mansfield Eleven went on to crush Franklin 13-12, Bridgewater 13-6, North Easton 12-0, and a weak Dighton team 39-0. Following a four game winning streak Mansfield lost well-fought games to Swansea 12-6 and to the Red Rocketeers of North Attleboro 13-6. A big Dartmouth team proved to be too much for the Hornets as Mansfield dropped their third straight 18-0. The Foxboro-Mansfield game drew an expected crowd of 2000 enthusiasts at Foxboro. Mansfield had several close scoring threats as did the Blue and Gold which made the contest a thriller. This magnificently played game ended in a tie 7-7.

Though the Hornets are losing many players through graduation, there is a fine nucleus of remaining players for Coach Waters to work with in the coming "54" season.

Baseball

1st row, l. to r.: H. Bolin, W. Reynolds, J. Pomfret, F. Baldini, R. Bolin, L. Giovino.

2nd row: E. Carl, Manager; E. Garriepy, R. Bridges, J. Mei, P. Webb, W. Leanues, E. Richardson, C. Dale, Manager.

3rd row: W. Maxwell, M. Morini, R. Baril, C. King, R. Cipriani, D. Dustin, J. Todesco, Coach Edward Guiliani.

Baseball practice hasn't yet got under way but everyone is looking forward to equal last year's very successful season. Edward Guiliani, once an M.H.S. athletic standout, is the current coach replacing Bob Waters. The Hornets will start training to defend its Hockamock League crown with the returning of nine lettermen to the squad. Six of the following nine lettermen were starters on the title team. They are Joe Mei, Bill Reynolds, Hugo Bolin, Bill Maxwell, Bill Leanues, Buzz Richardson, Bob Cipriani, Den Kaleta, and Dave Dustin.

Coach Guiliani has the makings of a good club that can successfully defend its crown. Here's wishing luck to Ed Guiliani in his first start as a coach and to the Champs!

Track

2nd row: P. Webb, F. Murphy, N. Bellavance, R. Thomas, R. Shaw, W. Maxwell, Coach Bob Waters.

The Mansfield High School track team under the direction of Coach Waters should display stiff competition to the rest of the league. Among those from last years' team who are returning are Don Fagan, Lou Brugliera, Bob Thomas, Buzz Richardson, Tom Foster, Sibby Falcone, Fran Murphy, Hugo Bolin, Bill Todesco, Pete Sabin, Bill Reynolds and Jim Evans.

The outstanding event will be the Concord Meet on Patriot's Day which always has proved exciting and worthwhile to witness.

2nd row: Donna Lou Cody, Pauline Delfino, Alice Long Sandra Olney, Dorothy Manson, Sylvia Pasquariello, Angie DiMaggio, Nancy Ockert, Elaine Marcheselli, Coach Arnold.

THE FEMALE HOOPSTERS!

Despite many practices and continued efforts, the Green Hornettes ended their season with but two victories against seven defeats.

Those who rolled up the score for the gal "hoopsters" were: Nancy Spaulding, "Duffy" Codding, "Edie" Holt, Marcia Thayer, "Viv" Laprise and Marcia Stewart. The defenders were: "Jackie" Agan, "Jan" Martin, "Kathy" McKay, "Jan" Guild, Nancy Vellettri, and "Sandy" Sabin.

"School days, School days,
Good old golden rule days . . . "

Class History

Bravely opening the door and entering M.H.S. in September of 1950, we, the Class of '54, found ourselves facing four years of well organized education and social activities.

In the following month our advisors, Miss Driscoll and Miss Walsh, took us in hand and helped us elect our class officers. Louis Gordon was chosen president; Daniel Palanza, vice-president; Carol Ferguson, secretary; and Beverly Metrano, treasurer.

In May of 1950, the freshman class held its first dance, the '54 Special. As usual for a freshman dance, many curious upper classmen attended which made it a great success.

In athletics we contrbuted many future stars: Fred Delfino, William Leanues, Joseph Mei, Daniel Palanza, Edward Richardson, Philip Webb, Robert Bridges, Donald Forrester, John Zecher, Richard Hofemann, and Wilbur Johnson. In the girls sports line-up were: Beverly Metrano, Louise McKay, Doris Blomstrom, Jeanette Fasulo, and Janet Agan.

Many members of the class participated in such clubs as: the Tatler, and Boy's and Girl's Glee Clubs.

Several landmarks during the year were: our Freshman initiation given by the Senior Class, the "Mistletoe Fling" at which many of our girls became acquainted with 'Senior Romeo's', and the amazing feats and antics displayed on Hobo Day. These helped to keep us in stride with upperclasses.

In June at the Class Day exercises the 'Pea Green' Freshmen witnessed the departure of the Seniors into the wide, wide world.

Before we realized it September arrived, uniting our class once more. As "Gay Young Sophomores" we carried out the task of class elections. The results were: Edward Albertini, president; Peter Fontanini, vice-president; Carol Ferguson, secretary; and Beverly Metrano, treasurer. Again many of our class were enrolled in active clubs: the Tatler, Stamp, Pan American, Dramatics, Weather, Aeronautic's, Projector, and Girl's and Boy's Glee Clubs.

Reporting to Coach Waters in addition to last years athletes were: Dennie Kaleta, Stuart King, Edward Garriepy, and Fred Larson. Jeanette Fasulo, Elizabeth Ricardo, Louise McKay, Beverly Metrano, and Judith George supported the M.H.S. Hornettes. Louise McKay was our lone cheerleader.

With the able assistance of Miss Walsh and Mr. Ienello, our class advisors, we chose our class rings and anxiously waited for their arrival in the early part of our Junior year.

Our social events this year were the dances we held in February and May, which proved to be a success both socially and financially. As the days passed we realized soon we would become "Jolly Juniors". In June we again attended Class Day exercises and bade the Seniors farewell.

After a refreshing vacation we attempted to settle down to our studies in September. Our first duty was to elect class officers. Edward Albertini, Peter Fontanini, and Beverly Metrano were reelected and our new secretary was Brenda Kelly.

We finally received our class rings in October, which we proudly displayed to the underclassmen. In the same month, we held the "Harvest Hop" and in December, we held a successful "Record Hop" with Bob Clayton as disc jockey.

Reinforcing last years sports lineup were: Lawrence King and Roy McGlashing. The Juniors were highly represented by last year's participants in girl's sports with the addition of Jann Spaulding, Marie Boynton, and Marie Szabo. Two new "peppy" cheerleaders were Jeanette Fasulo and Beverly Metrano.

Toward the end of the year we voted for the class photographer. Lorings Studio was chosen by a large majority of the class. About this time, chosen as delegate for Massachusetts State was Joan Barre.

Our biggest event of the year was now in progress. Under the guidance of Mr. Ienello, Miss Walsh, Mr. Linsert and our co-chairmen "Ken" Guilette and "Bev" Metrano, the class worked whole-heartedly and faithfully to make the Senior Reception an overwhelming success. With the completion of our Junior year, we were at long last, Seniors!

For the last time we elected class officers: Edward Albertini, president; Peter Fontanini, vice-president; Carol Ferguson, secretary; and Beverly Metrano, treasurer.

In the midst of our Senior year we held four dances: "Thanksgiving Dance," "Tinsel Twist," "Sweetheart Social," and the "Hobo Hop." Guiding us in our many activities we had the helpful assistance of Miss Walsh, Mr. Payden, and Mr. Linsert. Under the direction of Mr. Tighe, the Seniors sponsored the traditional class play, "Men Are Like Streetcars" on February 4 and 5. Included in the cast were: "Maudie," Sandra Giles; "Mrs. Mason," Beverly Mathews; "Mr. Mason," Kenneth Guilette; "Sylvia," Beverly Metrano; "Joy," June Gallipeau; "Alix," Louise McKay; "Julie," Beverly Calesa; "Lysbeth," Gloria Kirshkaln; "Mrs. White," Elizabeth; "Mrs. Allen," Joan Barre; "Mrs. Day," Geraldine Huber; "Davy," William Seigfried; "Chi," Duane Tibbetts; "Jerry," Edward O'Keefe; "Ted," Edward Albertini; and "Margaret," Jeanette Fasulo. An enthusiastic audience showed its appreciation throughout the play.

Announcement of honors was made by our principal, Mr. Mushroe, at a class meeting. Essayists were: Edward Albertini, Marie Szabo, Mary Vallett, and Arline Silenzi; Class Will—Joan Barre and Donald Forrester; Class Prophecy—Brenda Kelly and Judith George; Class History—Patricia Lizotte, Beverly Metrano, and Roberta Nordberg. Joan Barre was chosen as our Good Citizen sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Our Good Government Representative was Robert Bridges.

In March, important decisions were made. We chose for our class flower—a violet; for our class colors—orchid and white; for our class motto—Never Ending, Still Beginning.

Commencement exercises were held on the following dates: Baccalaureate Sunday, June 20; Class Day, June 21; Graduation Exercises, June 22; and the Senior Reception, June 24.

With much joy we have written these recollections of our four years in high school. It is with sincere regret that we leave M.H.S., but we are grateful that we can take with us so many cherished memories.

Class Will

by

Joan Barre and Donald Forrester

We, the last graduating class to leave this antique institution of learning, with no minds and light hearts do hereby declare this to be our first and final volition.

To Mr. Anderson we leave the old high school in "ahem"—excellent condition!

To Mr. Mushroe we leave all our left over "good luck" to take with him to the new Mansfield High School.

To all the teachers we leave memories—some sweet some sour but definitely "memories".

To the Juniors we bequeath a book for their class play entitled "What to do in case of Heart Failure".

To the Sophomore girls we leave the solemn regret that the Senior boys will no longer be around to break their hearts.

To the Freshmen we leave the pleasant thought that next year's Senior Class might be more friendly.

Wally Hewes leaves a soap box to Mr. Payden for his future orator.

Sandra Giles leaves her quiet, shy manner to Sandra "Gabby" Folcik.

Marie Szabo leaves her high I.Q. to Billy Todesco.

Clem Mondillo and Bev Calesa leave with one thing in common.

Phil Webb mournfully leaves all the girls to next year's "Goldy-Locks".

John Cuneo leaves just in the nick of time.

Brenda Kelly leaves to enroll in the marriage bureau at Amherst. Never say die Brenda!!

Paul Maloon leaves without an excuse.

William Chinn wills his motto "Why hurry when you have a whole lifetime ahead!" to Ann Sheehan.

Al Hodson leaves a hammer to Butch Ross so that he can make an impression on the teachers.

Gloria Kirshkaln leaves her longing for fresh fruits, especially "dates" to Marcia Stewart.

Gail Chapman leaves Sibby to anyone who can tame him.

Janet Agan leaves her sister to carry on the family tradition.

Eddy Albertini leaves with the advice: "Three presidential terms are enough."

Dolores DiChiara bestows her title "Fashion Queen" to anyone who deserves it.

Dick Hofemann sadly leaves Miss Walsh's homeroom.

Bill Leanues leaves willingly!

Patty Paine wills her ponytail to Sandy Sabin.

Dick Morse leaves behind a box of excuses left over from last year's trout season.

Buzz Richardson leaves daintily on tiptoe.

Beverly Metrano leaves to go "Bolin".

Johnny Johnson wills his Model 'A' to the Fisher-Richardson House for historical interest.

Mary Vallett leaves as "Lovely" as ever.

Joe Mei and Denny Kaleta leave still trying to even things up.

Louise McKay leaves her good looks to Judy Briggs.

Bill Siegfried wills his Florida tan to anyone able to tear themselves away from school for a few weeks next winter.

Danny Palanza leaves his good sportsmanship and athletic ability to Bill Maxwell.

Dick Moore leaves a large economy size bottle of alka-seltzer to the teachers of M.H.S. in hopes that it will sooth their shattered nerves.

Gerry Huber wills her likeable personality to Duncan Ferguson.

Betty Ricardo leaves her mellow tones to Mr. Guiliani.

Arlene Silenzi leaves her high marks to anyone willing to work enough for them.

Bev Mathews leaves her powder kit to next year's mother in the class play.

June Gallipeau leaves her notes from the class play on "how to get your man" to Janet Martin!

Carol Ferguson leaves her ability to write English themes to someone who has a literary companion.

Debby Gormley leaves her poodle-cut to Judy Goyea.

Jeannette Fasulo bequeaths a box of wheaties to next year's star athletes.

Snookie King leaves a pair of wings to Tom "Hot Rod" Foster just in case he might come as close as Snookie did in using them.

Fred "Admiral" Larson leaves to sail the blue, blue sea.

Larry "forgery" King leaves to advise the handwriting expert in Providence Police Department.

Jimmy "Floor it—here comes a pedestrian" Forrester leaves with the consolation that not one pedestrian escaped his "clutch".

Judy George and Peter Fontanini, co-authors of the noted book, "Trapping Skills" leave their rusty traps to Carol Briggs.

John Zecher leaves a manual "How to crank a Ford" to Bill Reynolds who could use the information.

Duane Tibbetts leaves with an eye for "acute angles."

Geno Bacchiocchi leaves with the satisfaction that he has filled his little black book with names and addresses.

Roy McGlashing leaves his list of aliases to some counterspy in the Freshman class.

Ed Garriepy leaves with the knowledge that "Colonel" Linsert will remember him.

Bob Bridges leaves with a wealth of facts and figures, mostly figures.

Edde O'Keefe leaves the ads in next year's yearbook to anyone who has a head for money.

Bob Linari bestows his information on "Tomatoes" to Gene Thibault who works in that line also.

Kenny "Casinova" Guillette leaves behind a poem entitled "Elegy in a Birch Bark Canoe" to Bob Thomas.

Dick Bliss leaves his style of hairdo to Janet Guild. Isn't that just ducky?

"Cuddles" Troesch bequeaths the wisdom: "Never go steady with the same fellow twice".

Jane Searing wills her wardrobe of sweaters to Shirley "Bubbles" Shepardson.

Shirley Ludwig and Jim McIntyre leave the following motto: "Silence is Great, but Speech is Greater".

Pat Lizotte and Marie Boynton leave to put their Home Management skill into practice.

Loanne Giles departs for a matrimonial adventure at Dartmouth College.

As for us, we leave while we still have a chance.

In conclusion, thereof we the class of nineteen hundred and fifty four with black eyes and blue minds do hereby sign our grubby paws to the previous statements.

And so We Started

Class Prophecy

by
Brenda Kelly and Judy George

The years wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.

It was a lovely Saturday in June, 1958, on the beautiful campus of the University of Massachusetts, and Judy and I were in our sorority house talking of our future graduation.

We picked up the latest copy of the "Mansfield News". The three inch headlines read, "Senator Bridges accused by Forrester". It seems that Don has taken McCarthy's place in Washington and Bob has been tryin to better foreign relations by taking out a female member of every country in the U. N. Bob really keeps his shapely secretary, Delores DeChiaria busy keeping track of his dating schedule.

On the bottom of the front page we read with interest a big ad Marie Boynton and Dick West in "Range Rider Rodeo."

As we turned the page we quickly spotted a column by Loanne Giles entitled "Life on a Dartmouth Campus," and we remembered that Loanne had spent quite a lot of time there during her high school days.

Besides this lively column was a picture of the Grand Opening of Carol Ferguson's chain of soda fountains. "Ferg" started this fabulous enterprise while still one of the "Cuneo Cuties".

As we centered our attention on the "Rambling Round" column, we noticed an article about an old classmate, Joan Barre. It seems she is setting up the drinks (Cokes that is) at the U. S. O. Canteen at Squantum Naval Base. She enjoys this work because it keeps her near another old classmate, Fred Larson, who is now stationed there.

In this column we also noticed an article about Janet Agan. This girl is now the proud owner of a peanut stand at Coney Island. She always did like to meet people!

A huge ad caught our eyes—"Moore & Dr. Palanza Inc." Apparently Dan had become a surgeon; he always did know how to operate! Mr. Moore has a thriving undertaking business attending to Dr. Palanza's unsuccessful patients. Dick offers free "pickup and delivery service."

In the police news we noticed that Patrolman Paul Maloon had closed in on John Cuneo's Bakery. John was accused of running a "goodies's racket".

We then turned to the sports page to see what the athletes of Mansfield were doing. "Buzz" Richardson had just been picked "All American" guard for the Ivy League.

In news from the Olympics, we proudly saw that Debbie Gormley had won the female broad jump event. She got her training jumping over boxes in the back room of Sherman & Horrocks while trying to evade some of her fellow workers.

Also in the article we saw that Duane Tibbetts had been disqualified in the pole vault event. It seems that he discarded the pole and just walked over—15 feet!

Joe Mei has brought glory to his home town by replacing Yogi Berra on the Yankees; only difference between them, Joe reads Classic Comics instead of Mickey Mouse.

"Big Den" Kaleta is now coaching at old M. H. S. His teams are now Class "C" champs in all three sports.

A big attraction in the athletic field is the current wrestling event at Jack Witchi's—Louse McKay vs. Jeanette Fasulo. They finally found a way to settle their fights.

In the field of entertainment we observed with interest the coming attractions at Bobby Linari's "Stork Club". Ken Guillette, the current Liberace, is appearing with his candelabrum. The week after, Billy Leanues, the new sensation of the crooning world, will hold a six week stand.

Richard Bliss is the author of that broadway hit production "Who do you Know, Who Do You Know, Cuneo" starring that great actress Roberta Nordberg. He got his inspiration during Activity Period at M. H. S.

In the book review section, we spot the name of Jim Forrester, the author of that best seller, "Have You Heard the Truth?" He hopes to write a sequel "How I Found Out."

In the "Better Business Section" we saw many familiar names. Eddy Albertini is drumming up business for Richie Morse's Airport. Richie is also pilot for his enterprise; he is now flying high every day instead of just Saturday nights. Eddy runs the Jiminey Cricket Travel Agency at Richie's Airport. He decided that teaching history would be easier if people saw for themselves.

Geno Bacchiocchi is running a very successful driving school. He now carries heavy life insurance for all difficult students.

Gerry Huber and Sandra Giles have started a marriage counsel bureau. No doubt they got the inspiration for this vocation from our lively P. O. D. classes.

Richard Hofeman has made a highly financial success with his restaurant. His head waiter, William Siegfried, also is cleaning up!

John Zecher has become one of Mansfield's wealthy young business men. Besides a thriving horticultural business, John has 200 head of guernseys.

We read with pride that our old classmate, Pat Lizotte, had been named "the housewife of the year". We always knew she would put her domestic talents to good use with Merle.

A vivid home permanent ad caught our attention. It was none other than Phil Webb advertising the latest Toni home wave. Phil is a very satisfied user of this product.

In the new gadgets column we observed that Clem Mondillo had invented a new vacuum cleaner. That girl always did know how to get all the "dirt".

In the lost and found column we read that Miss Beverly Calesa has lost an egg basket that was last seen in the vicinity of Guild's Duck Farm. Apparently she now has a full time job collecting the eggs.

One article tells of the exploits of Marie Szabo. She and Pete Fontanini, her guide, are down in Mexico looking for Aztec ruins. Pete always was good at leading the women around.

We have several inventors among our old classmates. June Gallipeau, formerly employed by one of the local hardware firms, has gone on her own to invent a new lock which automaticly closes the door at 12:30 A.M. Seems she was having trouble keeping the wolves away from her door . . . Eddy Garriepy, the mad scientist, has invented a machine which will aid any student in English class. It passes in all the themes and reads all assignments . . . Walter Hewes, we read, is the proud designer of the newest rage—a genuine supersonic ring with a secret compartment and a built in T. V. . . . Al Hodson, the famed West Mansfield stock car driver has drawn up plans for a revolutionary new car which will head for home by itself at midnight.

Our own Gloria Kirshkaln has made millions in the importing business. She is bringing English cigarettes into the U. S. and selling them at a gigantic profit . . . Johnny Johnson is now her chauffeur. It seems he got his training during high school.

We were disturbed to read of the disaster of Stuart King's ship the U. S. "Lolypop". It went aground on a desert island and one of his passengers, Carol Troesch, finally found a place where she could go barefoot inconspicuously.

Beverly Metrano is writing a daily fashion column direct from Paris. Those gay Frenchmen are really showing her all the angles.

Gail Chapman is taking a post-graduate course at the Henry O. Peabody School of Beauty Culture. She is still trying to find out how to let one's bleached hair grow out evenly.

Eddy O'Keefe is the proprietor of a new Mansfield radio station, WIUAL . . . Tony Chinn is the star of the disc-jockey show, "The Sweetest Music this Side of Foxboro".

Betty Ricardo and Arlene Silenzi are the owners of the ritziest eating place in town; "Gracies Greasy Spoon". Lawrence King, the head waiter, directs Patty Paine in the culinary department. She always did like to dish out the balogna.

Shirley Ludwig and Bev Mathews are high officials in Sears and Roebuck Company. They are in charge of the baby chick department.

An ad read, "Roy McGlashing and Jim McIntyre's garage". They are selling the new oil, "Oily Oil."

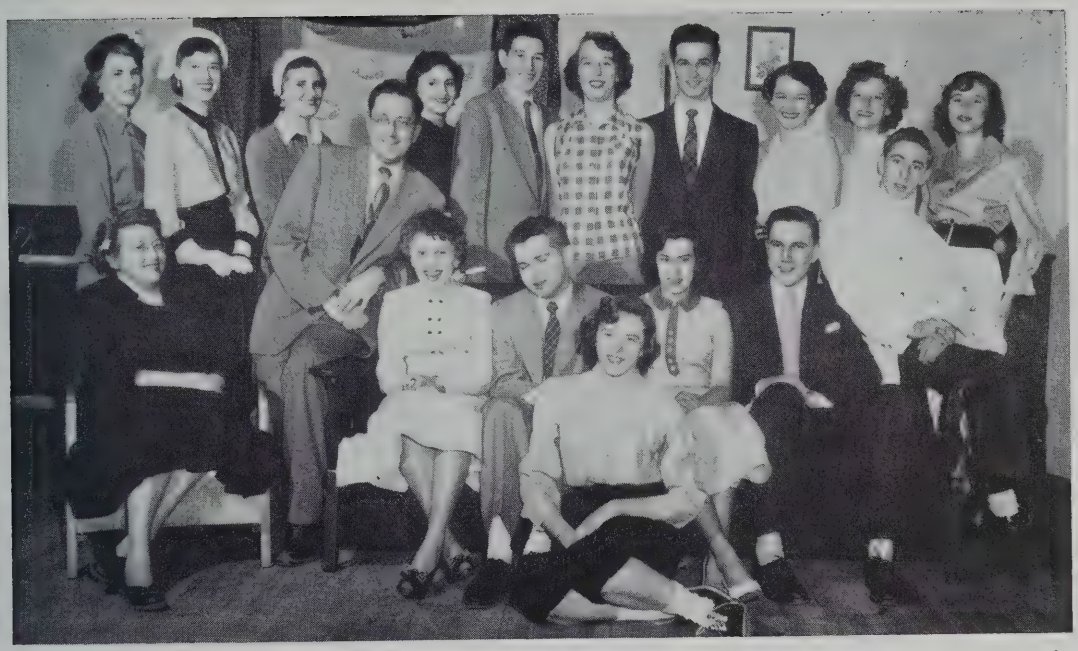
Jane Searing has replaced the parrot on the Guillette Blue Blade Ad "How are you fixed for Blades."

A large ad announces the new beauty preparation, "Vallett's Beauty Grains." They are on sale at Mary's former place of employment, and they're guaranteed to remove the top layer of even the loveliest lady's skin.

As we put aside the "News," we couldn't help but think, "Gee the Class of '54 has come a long way in four years. "I wonder how the "News" will read in '64." The future is always uncertain but we can only wish it will be happy and prosperous.

classes

Class Play



Seated, l. to r.: C. Walsh, R. Tighe (director), B. Mathews (Mrs. Mason), K. Guillette (Mr. Mason), S. Giles (Maudie), B. Metrano (Sylvia), E. O'Keefe (Jerry), W. Siegfried (Davy).

Standing: G. Huber (Mrs. Day), J. Barre (Mrs. Allen), E. Ricardo (Mrs. White), J. Fasulo (Margaret), D. Tibbetts (Chi), G. Kirshkaln (Lysbeth), E. Albertini (Ted), L. McKay (Alix), B. Calesa (Julie), J. Gallipeau (Joy).

The various members of the cast take their places on the stage and at the entrances. Frantic last minute checks on clothes and props are made and amidst the jitters, the not-so-dependable curtain rolls up. The long awaited opening night had arrived!—Thus, began the first act of "Men are Like Streetcars."

After the first few moments of nervousness, the cast relaxes and it might easily be just another rehearsal. As the play closes on the first performance, everyone looks forward to the following night.

As was expected, the group repeated their lively performance and also added some unrehearsed humor with the mispronouncing of a few words.

Though we may not win any Oscars, everyone seemed to agree that under the able direction of Mr. Tighe, the Class of '54 carried on the tradition of high quality plays.
